These are given as guidelines only, not rules. Indeed they can vary greatly according children's physical statures and the strength of their ambitions and determination.

PROSPECTIVE PIANO PUPILS must have access to either a real (e.g. upright) piano, or a digital piano (minimum spec of 76 full-sized and touch-sensitive keys) at home for practising. Given the length of school holidays, this also applies to boarders. Most electronic keyboards (digital pianos excepted) are unsuitable. If unsure, please ask.
